AMONG THE HUNDREDS of area youngsters who will join the Easter Bunny Parade Sunday morning are Kurt Ferber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Ferber, of Rancho Rd., and Cindy Sheets, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Sheets, 401 N. Auburn. Cindy and Kurt are getting their baskets ready for the visit of the Big Bunny who rains Easter eggs only on children between the ages of 2 and 6.

Wistaria to Bloom For Sunrise Services

Sierra Madre's Wistaria Vine for the first time in its 67-year history matches the opening of its blossoming season with the holding of Easter services under the 45,000 square feet of lavender blossoms.

Will be conducted by the Youth for Christ movement featuring a 60 voice youth choir and the McClaine trumpeters. Roy McKeown, regional vice president of the youth program, will deliver the service.

The Wistaria Vine, the world's largest flowering plant, will be open to the public daily during the blossoming season which is expected to last four weeks.

Sponsors of the annual festival is the Teen Ranch division of the Greater Los Angeles Youth for Christ. All proceeds from the festival will be used for the Teen Ranch in Hesperia, California.

Ezra Benson To Deliver Bowl Sermon

Ezra Taft Benson, secretary of agriculture and an outstanding religious leader for nearly 40 years, will deliver the Easter message at the 39th annual Hollywood Bowl Easter Sunrise Service, to be held on Easter morning, March 29 in Hollywood Bowl, it has been announced by Otto K. Olesen, general manager chairman for the event.

In 1943 the secretary became a member of the Council of the Twelve Apostles of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

More than 20,000 persons are expected to attend this year's service in Hollywood Bowl which will feature an extensive program of sacred music

Sunrise Rites Planned by Lutherans

A 6 a.m. Easter service will be conducted on Sunday in the Hastings Drive-In Theater, 400 N. Halstead, according to Rev. Armin Hesse.

This service is being sponsored by the eight Lutheran Church of the Missouri Synod located in the San Gabriel Valley.

The speaker will be the Rev. Martin Zigel of Mt. Olive Lutheran Church in Pasadena, with the Rev. Hesse of faith Lutheran serving as the liturgist. A mass choir of the eight participating churches will sing.

Campfire Group Gives Library Money for Books

The Wi-no-ta Campfire group honored the local librarians at a tea on March 15 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nash.

Miss Ruth Cain was presented a donation for the purchase of books with money raised by the girls in the group.

Librarians present were Miss Cain, Mrs. Emmett Black, Mrs. Harry Hinshaw and Mrs. John Samazon. Also attending were Mrs. Pearl Nash and the following women and their daughters:

Mrs. William Kindrick, Mrs. Virgil Nordyke, Mrs. Norman Davidson, Mrs. Elmer Petosa, Mrs. Paul Bryant, Mrs. Charles Schoenmehl, Mrs. Arthur Fox and Mrs. Robert Nash.

Bill Haines Is Named Manager Of Local Theater

Bill Haines, 837 Canyon Crest Dr., has been named manager of the Sierra Madre Theater, it was announced yesterday.

Mr. Haines, who has worked in other theaters in the past, was employed by Harold's Shoe Store for the past three years.

The local theater, he said, will eventually be remodeled. It is now open seven days a week and the management plans to change the feature picture twice weekly.

The theater also plans to sponsor a "Citizens Night" after Easter, Mr. Haines said.

Two File For School Board

Two Sierra Madreans have announced their intention to run for the School Board in the election on May 19.

Kenneth Bush, School Board president, will seek a second three-year term, and Claude Brown Jr. will run for a second vacancy on the Board. The deadline for filing is April 17.

The terms of Mr. Bush and Mrs. Nathan Jacobs expire at the end of May. Mrs. Jacobs, who is competing for her sixth year on the School Board, has decided to retire.

"THE SCHOOL is being run smoothly," said Mr. Bush. "It is my intention, if re-elected, to continue to back up our fine superintendent and to work to improve our school system."

"With the help of the people of Sierra Madre, our increase will be approved and we will be able to move ahead."

Mr. Bush, a telephone company supervisor, lives at 633 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

MR. BROWN, president of Parkway Manufacturing Co. in Pasadena, has long been active in school affairs. He is a past co-president of the Sierra Madre PTA and has worked in behalf of previous school bond issues and tax measures.

A graduate of Caltech, Mr. Brown lives at 49 W. Orange Grove. He was one of three candidates in the School Board election two years ago in which Hugh Colvin was elected.

Voters on May 19, in addition to selecting two Board members, will ballot on a proposed tax increase of 50 cents. If the measure passes, the new elementary rate will be $1.95 per $100 of assessed valuation, excluding the over-ride.

La Salle Student Wins 13-Day Trip to Italy

Tom Leslie, La Salle High School junior, will leave on Thursday via TWA, to spend a fully paid 13-day vacation in Italy.

His trip is the first prize in a subscription contest sponsored by the "Parade" supplement which appears in many newspapers throughout the nation.

Vine's Beauty Matches Size

The Teen Ranch Department of Youth for Christ, sponsor this year of the Wistaria Vine Festival, has dug into its project with gusto and unearthed a complete history of the vine. The fete opens tomorrow, March 27.

The lavender vine covers more than 45,000 square feet—approximately an acre. During its blossoming season, usually in early spring, millions of lavender blossoms hang overhead in grape-like clusters.

This year the 67-year-old vine is blossoming the latest in its history.

IT WAS transplanted from a gallon tin can in 1892 by Mrs. Alice Brugman and placed in front of her home at 201 West Carter. She remarked to a neighbor, "I hope it will grow to cover my house. Maybe it will in about 20 years."

She didn't have to wait long. Within a few years it had crept up the side of her house. It covered the roof. It forced the windows and doors. She sold the house and the vine. Its new owner said he could almost hear the vine growing on hot summer nights, and it has grown as much as 10 inches in a single 24-hour period.

He abandoned the 10-room house and built another 200 feet from the vine's main stem. A portion of the old house still stands as support for the vine. And in growing up to become the world's largest Wistaria, the vine is now clutching at the new house.

Firemen's Easter Egg Hunt Is Set for Saturday

The Easter Egg Party, sponsored annually by the Sierra Madre Fire Department, will be held this Saturday starting at 10 a.m. in Memorial Park.

All boys and girls up to 10 years of age are invited to join in the annual scramble for hidden eggs.

Another egg hunt will be held at Arcadia County Park, 405 S. Santa Anita Ave., starting at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, sponsored by the County Recreation Department.

Renovation Of Sturtevant Trail Planned

Young people from Sierra Madre will shoulder shovels and spades April 4 and start renovating a portion of Sturtevant Trail.

Work, under the direction of Forest Ranger Jack Tice, will start at the end of Sturtevant Rd. in the Circle-H Ranch area and proceed for about 1½ miles to Half-Way House.

The project, sponsored by the Boys and Girls Committee of the local Kiwanis Club, was initiated by Rev. George Lindsay of the Congregational Church.

The group plans to cut brush, remove logs and boulders and dig a drainage ditch. The trail, when completed, will be about 18 inches wide.

Cooperating will be the Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and young people's groups from the local churches.

Workers will meet at the Forest Ranger Station at the top of Santa Anita Ave. at 9 a.m. on Saturday, April 4.

Library to Get Book Sale Proceeds

The Used Book Sale, sponsored by the Friends of the Library, will take place April 16, 17 and 18 at the Community Room of the Sierra Madre Library from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

All proceeds will go to the library for the purchase of new books.

Boxes to donate books will be at the First Western Bank, the Highlander, the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School, Happy's, Arnold's, Shopping Bag, and the local churches from March 30 to April 11.

Or books can be brought directly to the library.

Volunteer workers may call Mrs. Andrews, ELgin 5-9588; Mrs. May Wilt, ELgin 5-7338, or Mrs. Helen Loomis, ELgin 5-2976.

Zoning Study Ready For Presentation

Report Scheduled Monday Evening

A complete report on the proposed development of the business area bounded by Hermosa and Baldwin will be presented at a meeting in City Hall, tentatively set for next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington told the City Council Tuesday night that the report of Simon Elser and Associates will be ready for presentation by that time.

The company is the planning consultant hired by the city to make a thorough study of the best development of the area behind Sierra Madre Blvd. businesses. The study presumably will cover the erection of apartment buildings and putting in a new street.

Mr. Bevington said he will contact all property owners involved and inform them of the meeting.

NOREN EATON, attorney for John Rasmussen, objected to what he described as "long delays" in settling property matters involving the rights of individuals.

"There delays," said Mr. Eaton, "are a reflection on the integrity of the city itself."

Mr. Rasmussen wants property he owns behind his Sierra Madre Blvd. appliance store rezoned from commercial to R-3, which would permit him to build an apartment house. The Council has decided, however, that development of the entire area must be considered, including access and egress, before any zone changes are granted.

THE COUNCIL also confirmed its adoption two weeks ago of Ordinance 617 governing solicitation by religious and charitable groups.

Later in the meeting, a minor complication developed when the Teen Age Ranch Department of Youth for Christ applied for a business license to operate the Wistaria Festival, from March 27 to April 19.

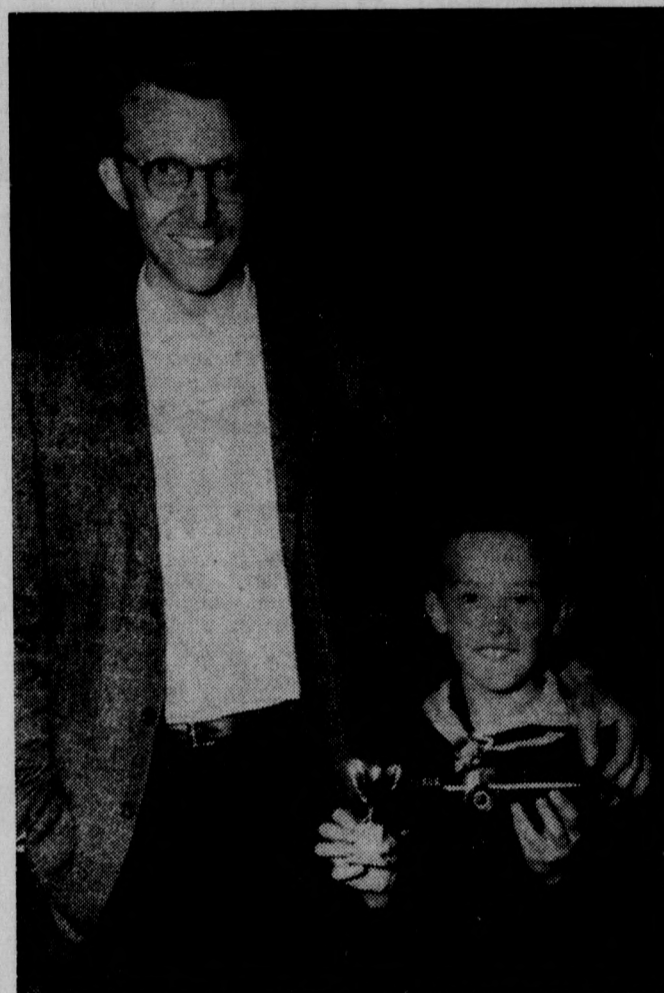

Mr. Eaton said that is illegal to give a business license for use in a residential zone. Furthermore, he argued that the Youth for Christ would also have to qualify under Ordinance 617.

Mrs. Estelle Drobek, who lives near the vine, also objected strenuously and demanded, among other things, the resignation of Mayor Charles H. James.

"Thank you," said Mayor James. "I thank you very much for your kind remarks."

THE COUNCIL finally decided that the Wistaria Festival had been in operation long before the Zoning Ordinance was passed and therefore a business license could be granted for a non-conforming use.

The license was granted.

THE WINNER—Alan George, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis George Jr., 397 W. Montecito, won the Best Driver trophy in Sierra Madre's first Pinewood Derby, a project of the San Gabriel Valley Boy Scouts. Alan's father, shown above, helped build the model car which was steered to victory by Alan at the March meeting of Cub Scout Pack 381.

Canyon Committee Picks First Officers

Officers of the newly formed Sierra Madre Canyon Association were chosen at a meeting last Monday evening in the basement social room of the First Western Bank.

R. E. Imus and T. R. Stetson have agreed to act as co-chairman for the group. Peggy Kline is secretary and Benson Hegel treasurer. About 55 canyon residents attended the meeting.

The group was formed to improve and develop the canyon. The committee hopes the central canyon area will eventually become as attractive as the eastern and western section.

"The first thing we propose," said Hegel, "is to determine what the residents of the canyon would like to see done with the 'ole slimm' hole." The committee's decision will be presented to the City Council.

Several suggestions were offered in regard to the pool property. They will be studied and a report presented at the next meeting.

The group's next meeting will be held Thursday, April 7, at 8 p.m. in the basement room of the bank. All residents of the canyon are invited.

Reece Dime Store Sold

The Reece 5, 10 and 25-cent Store has been sold, effective April 1, to Elizabeth M. Liniger of Van Nuys.

John W. Reece, 169 S. Baldwin, has owned the store for the past 11 years. His future plans are uncertain, Mr. Reece said.

Mrs. Liniger owns two other variety stores, one in Hollywood and the other in Camarillo.

Babe Ruth Tryouts Set Saturday

Tryouts and the first practice of the season for the Babe Ruth Baseball League of Sierra Madre will take place at 9 a.m. Saturday, March 28, at the La Salle High School diamond.

All boys 13, 14 or 15 desiring to play Babe Ruth baseball may report at the field with their own gloves and shoes. This includes all players of last year's teams still eligible as well as new comers and young players moving up from the Little League.

Registration cards will be issued. Numbers will be assigned to all new players. After assignment to teams, uniforms will be issued.

Men desiring to help with Babe Ruth this year also are to report, including last year's manager, coaches and business managers. Tryouts will continue Saturday mornings until the league games begin.

Meanwhile, tryout sessions for the Little League are continuing at Sierra Madre School diamond, St. Rita's School and at Jim Heasley Field in Sierra Madre Park.

Gas Co. Seeks 4% Rate Hike

Southern Counties Gas Co. has applied for a rate increase with the State Public Utilities Commission of approximately 4 per cent, it was announced yesterday.

A company spokesman said the increase is necessary to offset a hike of $4.7 million annually in the cost of natural gas purchased from its out-of-state supplier, the El Paso Natural Gas Co.

If granted, the increase would cost the average household an additional 25 to 30 cents a month.

The increase will not result in any additional earnings for the company, the spokesman said. Its sole purpose, he added, is to recover the higher cost of wholesale gas.

El Paso Gas Co. is expected to raise its rates Aug. 1, 1959, subject to review of the Federal Power Commission. If a reduction in the rate is later ordered, refunds to customers of the local utility will be made.

This is the second offset rate increase requested by the Southern Counties Gas Co. this year.

SIERRA MADRE'S famed Wistaria Vine will open its blossoming season with the holding of Easter Sunrise services under the acre of blossoms. The services, sponsored by Youth for Christ, will feature a 60 voice Youth Choir and the nationally known McClain Trumpeters.

New World Revisited

An inordinately large number of non-conformists, it seems, stalk the streets of Sierra Madre.

They haunt public meetings, they cry out in protest over seemingly inconsequential points of law and decorum, they compose and mail scandelous letters to the editor, and they eschew togetherness.

They desport themselves, in short, in a manner calculated to cause the growing majority of us Milquetoasts to gnash our teeth in rage and frustration—silently, to be sure.

NOW A NON-CONFORMIST is simply an individualist. He usually is found on the political right or left, rarely in the center where rest the recumbent forms of most of us.

To the non-conformist, the opinion of the majority is not sacrosanct. He may be a keeper of birds, large flocks of them, or he may brew his own beer and ride a bicycle. He may hanker for the second coming of Joe McCarthy or envision a perfect state where only the policemen are in jail.

Nearly always he is at odds with his fellow man, particularly other non-conformists. He may be eminently sane or bordering on lunacy.

But despite the antics of the non-conformist, despite our desire to throttle him, we should be thankful he is still among us. He is responsible for most of the progress made in this world, and without him we are lost.

Indeed, we may be lost already, according to Aldous Huxley in his "Brave New World."

HUXLEY ARGUES that the seemingly inevitable drift toward conformity is as dangerous and as stifling to freedom as was Hitler's National Socialism or is Krushev's totalitarian Communism. The press of the world's growing population, the hidden persuaders, and the dozens of other aspects of our age are all grist for the mill of conformity, says Huxley.

A drive over the Los Angeles County freeway system is enough to make one believe Huxley's day of reckoning may be close at hand.

Acres and acres of new houses, solidly packed, each with its white stone roof and TV antenna, each exactly like its neighbor. How long before we all are exactly like our neighbor, with the same views about religion and politics, the same desires for a new car, a white picket fence and economic security?

HOW EASY for authority, however benign, to impose its will on the vast multitude of believers. The shrinking band of non-conformists can simply be ignored or, if its members become too troublesome, pushed into economic limbo.

This, then, is the "Brave New World" of Aldous Huxley, a world composed not of dictatorial tyrants ruling by force, but of docile sheep.

And sadly, when or if that time arrives we won't be able to recognize our breed. We can bleat in unison, untroubled and unafraid, for the wolves won't be around to tell up we are wrong.—H.W.E.

Human Egg Roll

The annual White House egg roll is a tame variation of an Easter custom that used to sweep the ancients off their feet.

Nowadays the custom involves hordes of youngsters who converge on the Executive Mansion to send their eggs bowling down the grassy slopes of the White House lawn.

But in the days when England was as hardy as it was merry, people used to roll themselves down a hill!

Research experts with The World Book Encyclopedia reveal that the English—joyful over the return of spring and the Resurrection of Christ—tumbled down Greenwich Hill at Easter.

Eventually they tired of the sport—or its accompanying bruises—and substituted eggs.

One reason why the egg comes in for such a beating is that traditionally it is a symbol of life from death—the message of Easter. Just as the dead winter gives way to spring, the lifeless-looking egg produces the chick.

OUT OF THE COBWEBS

43 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, March 24, 1916—

The Mt. Wilson observatory management expects to complete the hauling of materials for the 100-inch telescope mountings early in the season.

C. C. Mangola, formerly a resident of Sierra Madre, is one of the candidates for the office of City Clerk in Redondo Beach.

The announcement that the famous Wistaria Vine at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Fennel on Scenic Point was in full bloom attracted hundreds of visitors here over the weekend.

20 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, March 24, 1939—Janet Lewis and Barbara Brown, were on the scholarship roll for the last semester at Wilson High.

Guests who enjoyed a Chinese checker party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Coit were Mr. and Mrs. Will Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Larson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Witt, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Willis and Miss Nola Johnston.

Miss Ruth Wheeling, Miss Billy Weaver, Weston Senour and Garwin Harris enjoyed a motor trip to San Diego.

10 YEARS AGO THIS

WEEK, March 24, 1949—Eight Sierra Madre campfire girls who enjoyed a trip to the San Diego Zoo were Peggy Porter, Linda Polliska, Nancy Montgomery, Margaret Carter, Loraine Blumenstock, Carol Ann Shalndagle, Susan Edwards and Alexander Batterson.

Mrs. Viola Hamilton, 224 San Gabriel Ct., returned from a visit with friends in Chicago, Ill.

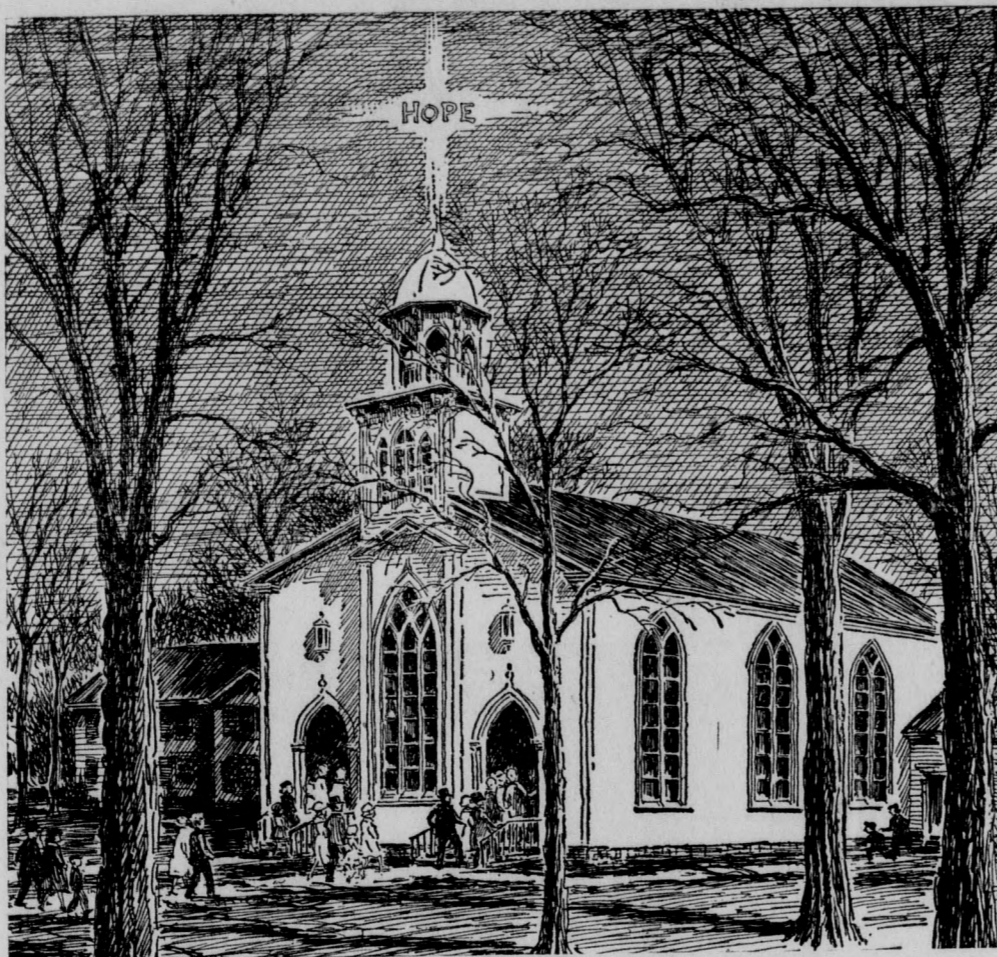

The Wistaria princesses were Jackie Thurston, Lillian Kinney, Diane Ferris, Nancy Springer and Connie Dillon.

5 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, March 24, 1954—City Administrator Meriwitt Baker and Anthony Cavalli, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, were guest panelists in a discussion at PCC.

Mrs. Georgia Osborn, Harry A. Lange and Mrs. James C. Winslow were named to the membership committee of the Friends of the Library by the president, Raymond D. Andrews.

Carl Hansen was named chairman of Sierra Madre chapter, American Red Cross, succeeding E. Waldo Ward. R. C. Lewis and C. E. Jones were re-elected vice chairman and treasurer, respectively.

The Enduring Message of Easter

Around the Square

By Tommy Ann Miller

Every now and then something unpleasant happens to shake up our feeling of small town security—something which makes us wonder if we shouldn't start being more suspicious—or at least precautionary.

What happened? A junior sized, beginner's bicycle (belonging to an 8-year-old boy) eventually destined to be "inherited" by his younger sister.

Not only does the young owner miss the bike—but so do other beginning-bike-riders in the neighborhood.

Will whoever pedaled off with it, please bring it back?

CENTURY PLUS FOUR, 104 birthdays will be celebrated by Viola A. Tuttle, Saturday, with a bonfire of candles on her cake. She was born in Zanesville, Ohio, March 28, 1855, and can recall parts of the Civil War. Of her dozen children, there are four surviving—and so many generations living (at least five) she's lost count.

Mrs. Tuttle has lived here on and off for the past few years, and now resides with her daughter, Lola E. Marshall, 43½ Sierra Pl. According to her daughter, Mrs. Tuttle has a wonderful appetite (loves peppermint candy), makes her own bed, gets around fairly well and loves to sew.

Many happy returns, Mrs. Tuttle!

DR. HOWARD P. Robertson, Caltech professor of mathematical physics, was one of the speakers at Caltech's two day seminar on "The Realities of Space Exploration," before an audience of 300 of the nation's top space scientists and industrialists.

Following the Thursday meeting, Dr. Robertson and wife, Angela (Sierra Madreans for the past 10 years), served scientific cocktails to many guests at their North Auburn home.

"HOW DO you spell 'hooray'?" inquired an anxious voice at the other end of the News office telephone wire, Friday noon. (The voice was coming from the Bakery where they were decorating a birthday cake as ordered). "It can't be "hoorah!"—it's got to be 'hooray!'."

Society Editor Marge Thomas obligingly consulted Webster's biggest volume of cheery words and proper spelling, and came up with the answer: "Hurray!"

Next question?

KIDNEY CULPRIT. Two months of complete bed rest is pretty hard on an 11-year-old boy—but that's been the sentence served by Ricky Goodall—due to acute nephritis. Ricky (who says "thanks" to everyone for the calls, cards, etc.) is a Boy Scout and has been on the "Yankee" Little League team for two years.

His parents, John and Peggy Goodall, are hoping he'll be well and active before too much longer, but in the meantime the fifth grader is being tutored at home.

DOUBLE felicitations at the Noshier home on North Mountain Trail, Saturday night, when 30 friends potlucked the birthdays of Clarence Noshier and George Hannaford—who have observed their last six natal anniversaries together.

Mr. Noshier, incidentally, hasn't been feeling well for several months and is pretty much confined indoors.

FURTHER down on Mountain Trail—at the Highland corner, J. A. Kramer (who formerly operated a date packing plant) is feeling chipper again—after a lengthy session in bed.

TUNNEL TALE. A USC publication has just announced the completion of Dr. Raymond Chuan's highly successful wind tunnel—first of its kind—used to test missiles and rockets at all temperatures and speeds.

Dr. Chuan, USC director of engineering, formerly lived here with his artist-wife, Norma—who has given (and still does) art instruction to many local offspring.

"She better not marry him! With all the stupid promises he's making, there's gotta' be insanity in his family!"

Letters to the Editor

BUS SERVICE

Dea Sir:

One of life's darkest moments is experienced abroad the Pasadena City Lines bus, approaching Sierra Madre Blvd. just as the Metro shuttle bus whizzes by. The carless Sierra Madrean is then sentenced to a one-hour wait, in which to admire Fedde's furniture display and Orin Fox's Ramblers. Perhaps Orin and Metro are in cahoots in a diabolical scheme to wear down car sales resistance.

Quite frankly, Pasadena to Sierra Madre service is a bominable. It is a dried up vestige of former Pacific Electric service, which, under single management was frequent on both lines and extended transfer privileges. Overnight accommodations were not necessary while waiting for connections.

W. H. T. Holden, professional engineer and editor of the monthly "City & Suburban Travel" at Pasadena, made a survey of potential Sierra Madre-Pasadena traffic based on telephone call volume. Results of this survey merit serious consideration by MTA.

Toward better Sierra Madre-Pasadena service we endorse Mr. Holden's recommendation to combine routes 67 and 70, eliminate San Marino shuttle service, and let some of the Pasadena Oak Knoll buses run through to Sierra Madre by way of North Lake and Orange Grove Avenues.

Very respectfully
K. Fritz Schumacher.

LIGHTEN TAX LOAD

Dear Sir:

It is refreshing indeed to know that in our town there are quite a few people of integrity who are sincerely striving to lighten our tax burden by eliminating unnecessary expenses in the school budget. To them, we say,

Thank you,

EASTER EGGERS. Parents—let us leave the Easter egg hunting at the Park (scheduled for 10 a.m., Saturday morning) to the kids—and let them fill their own baskets. (Exceptions, of course are the very tiny children who do need assistance).

For grownups who love the thrill of the hunt, perhaps firemen could hide pickled eggs.

Lee Shippey asks
What Do
You Think?

Thirty odd years ago, in my Los Angeles Times column, I annoyed some persons by frequently urging that trees be planted along main business streets, arguing that the beauty of Paris was largely due to the fine trees shading its main streets, and they didn't keep "les Grands Boulevards" from being the most famous shopping center in the world.

The practical business vetoed the idea because, they said the trees would obscure their signs. So now it tickles me, every time I visit Los Angeles, to see that the organization known as Los Angeles Beautiful is getting a lot of them to set out trees in front of their business houses.

Wouldn't it be a fine thing if the residents of every block in our own community would get together and agree on a uniform plan for planting trees in the business area. Our town is exceptionally blessed with trees, around our homes, but you can look down many a block and not see a single tree on the parkways. Some energetic nurseryman might do a lot of business by inspiring block beautiful groups, offering attractive prices on trees in lots of 12 or 20 or whatever. And what else would add as much beauty, distinction, shade in summer and property value for so little? They would remind every visitor that this is the town in which Rasbach composed "Trees."

"LET BYGONES be bygones" is a very popular saying—especially with all of us who owe money.

NATIONAL OUTPUT has risen steadily for 10 months, but national employment still lags so much that millions are unemployed. I assume that automation is one reason, and high wages is another. It costs so much to have things done that millions do things for themselves. That is a point for every corporation wanting higher prices and every worker wanting higher wages to consider. There is such a thing as valuing one's self or one's product so high a diminishing number of persons will buy, as automobile manufacturers seem to have learned.

We Americans are show-off people. We like to say "It's only money" and drive or wear or enjoy the best. That puts us in the class of the best people, such as Hoffa, Beck and Mickey Cohen. The buy-on-time people urge us to buy whatever we want. But what would you do, pal, if your job faded out?

Watch on the Potomac . . .

Is Johnson Out of Presidential Race?

By Robert G. Spivack

THE BAFBLING BEHAVIOR OF "LBJ"—When things are quiet in Washington the so-called pundits begin to write of next year's presidential election campaign. It makes for good reading. Right now everyone can afford to be wrong, because who will remember in 1960 what you wrote in 1959?

Despite all the publicity garnered by Sen. John Kennedy of Massachusetts, Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota and the other front-runners, the national spotlight still shines brightly on Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas. As leader of his party in the Senate, as the man like calls to the White House, and simply as an astute politician Johnson is a "natural" when it comes to making newspaper copy.

Certainly Johnson has had more and better publicity breaks than most other men in the news from Washington. The results are no small tribute to his bright publicity adviser, George E. Reedy, who was once a crack newsman himself. But if Reedy had lesser material to work with, his talents as a publicity man would be lost. So, much of the credit for Johnson's present prominence belongs to Johnson himself.

FOR WEEKS and months Johnson's name has been in the headlines. In the Saturday Evening Post, my respected colleague Stewart Alsop did a full-length profile on the man from the Lone Star state. Other correspondents have been lavish in their praise, notably columnist William L. White, formerly of The New York Times.

Now, suddenly and without a complete explanation, Joseph Alsop, Stewart's brother, has come to the conclusion that Johnson is out of the presidential picture. His reason for arriving at this conclusion is that James Rowe, once one of FDR's "anonymous" White House assistants, has teamed up with Humphrey.

As most insiders in Washington know, Rowe has been close to Johnson for many years. So far as we can determine there is nothing to indicate that any rift has taken place. So the question is: Rowe now teaming up with Humphrey?

A MATTER OF STRATEGY—The simple way to find out what Rowe is up to—if he is up to anything—might be to ask him. But that's too easy. Several writers since J. Alsop have taken up the question of Rowe's connections with Humphrey, but none apparently has talked to Rowe. Or, if they have, none has quoted him or written what Rowe's viewpoint is on the possible Johnson candidacy.

If Rowe, used to playing an anonymous role, did tell exactly what his plans are there is always the possibility that we would be disbelieved; not because he would not be telling the truth, but simply because no one here takes anything at face value. So the mystery of the shift, if any, has to be solved in other ways.

Political logic suggests two explanations:

First that Johnson realizes it is politically disadvantageous to be out front so early in the game.

Second, that Johnson hopes to deadlock the Democratic convention.

If he can encourage Humphrey to think he has a chance and if he does nothing to discourage Kennedy from thinking the outlook is rosy, they may knock each other off.

THOSE INTEGRATED CHILDREN—Another Southern myth is being destroyed by facts rather than reliance on prejudiced imagination. It's that old notion that Negro children in integrated schools behave more badly than they did before integration. The District of Columbia Welfare department has made a study which shatters the notion that school integration adds to juvenile delinquency, or that there is any connection between them.

In the four years since the Supreme Court school decision, the D.C. Welfare department finds that delinquency among Washington's Negro children has declined sharply. The rate fell from 37.1 out of 1,000 to 21.2 out of 1,000 Negro kids. The period covered ran from 1954 to 1958.

Among white children there was not much change. In 1954 out of 1,000 whites there were 15.3 in trouble of some sort. In 1958 there were 15.2 out of 1,000.

Juliet Sprague Harwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Ralph Harwood of La Canada, became the bride of Donald William Feddes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold William Feddes, 51 Rancho Rd., March 21 in Hill Avenue Grace Lutheran Church, Pasadena.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white Italian silk and imported Chantilly lace. Fashioned with scoop neckline, with embroidery of pearls and sequins, and long sleeves, the gown featured princess lines and bustle back. She carried a bouquet of white hyacinths and carnations.

Wendy Schleicher, maid of honor, was attired in a rose pink ballerina length taffeta frock with a lace bodice and matching accessories. She wore a picture hat of pink tulle, decorated with nose-glasses and pearls and carried a cascade bouquet of deep rosy pink carnations.

The bridesmaids, Charlotte Anne Feddes, Patty Ewan and Margaret Milton, wore similar outfits to the maid of honor except that the dresses were of a deeper shade of pink and their bouquets were of a lighter hue.

Charles Ayres served his friend as best man and the guests were seated by Jerry VanMeter, Tom Delahooke and Richard Oden.

The mother of the bride was attired in a pale gray lace ensemble and the mother of the groom, in a blue silk faille gown. Both wore corsages of cymbidiums.

All white stock, gladioli and chrysanthemums were used to bank the altar and aisle clusters. White candles were on the altar and along the aisle.

Pupils and their parents will be shown the colored slides of the first Easter day entitled "In Joseph's Garden." The pastoral address will be "That Third Day," Sunday School pupils will sing "Angels, Roll the Rock Away," (T. Scott).

In the 10:30 service, the choir, under the direction of Warren Zelt, will sing Christiansen's "Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones." Pastor Hesse's sermon theme will be "Easter—A Happy Day," based on Psalm 118, 14-24.

Last week Rev. Hesse announced that he had declined the call to the pastorate of Peace Lutheran Church in Fresno. He is the local congregation's first resident pastor, having come to the Hastings Ranch parish from Riverside in 1952.

HANGING UP her wash alongside a king-size Easter Seal is 5-year-old Lynn Austerman of Van Nuys, one of nearly 9,000 Los Angeles County physically handicapped children being aided by the sale of Easter Seals. The 1959 Easter Seal campaign, sponsored locally by the Crippled Children's Society of Los Angeles County, is now under way and will continue on through Easter Sunday, March 29.

Easter Story's Significance Is Lutheran Topic

A colorful array of lilies will beautify the sanctuary and altar of Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church for the 10 a.m. Easter Sunday worship.

The present-day significance of the Easter story of Christ's resurrection will be stressed by the pastor, the Rev. Ray E. Hansen, in his sermon, "The Brightest Day." The choir, directed by Mrs. Eileen Moxley, church organist, will present "Song of Praise" and the congregation will sing favorite Easter hymns.

The Sunday School will present its Easter program at 9 a.m., featuring songs by the primary and intermediate departments and a color film presentation on the Resurrection story.

Preceding Easter, the congregation will celebrate Holy Communion at 8 p.m. this Thursday, March 26, in the church, which is at 33 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre. The Maundy Thursday Lord's Supper marks the observance of the time when Christ first instituted this sacrament before dying on the Cross the next day.

LESSON-SERMON

"Reality" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon for all Christian Science churches on Easter Sunday. The sermon opens with the Golden Text from Mark.

Sam Kirks Head Church Lamplighters

Sam Kirk, choir director, and Mrs. Kirk, church organist, were elected co-president of the Lamplighters Club of Sierra Madre Methodist Church last Saturday at the monthly meeting in the parish house. Thirty members attended.

Other new officers to be installed at the annual banquet May 23 at the Marino House will be Mr. and Mrs. Andy Westhafer, vice presidents, and Mr. and Mrs. Orrel Merrihew, treasurer and secretary.

Plans were discussed for the club's participation in the first annual fellowship banquet of the five couples' groups Friday evening, April 24, in the social hall of Holiston Methodist Church in Pasadena. The combined meeting will take the place of the regular April meeting of the Lamplighters.

A social hour followed the business meeting and dessert was served. The committee was Mr. and Mrs. Carl Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. Westhafer.

Rites of Tenebrae To Be Observed Thursday Eve

The ancient office of Tenebrae will be observed at the Congregational Church, together with the service of Holy Communion this Thursday evening. Tenebrae, an adoption of an ancient Century office, symbolizes the flight of the disciples and the passion of the Lord.

As the passion story unfolds, the church is in increasing darkness, for each of the disciples, portrayed by deacons of the church, extinguishes a light as he departs. Finally, the altar candle, symbolizing the human aspect of the nature of Christ, is extinguished, and only the divine light of God's love remains.

Hymn stanzas, sung by the choir, interpret the devotional significance of the Passion, from the Hour of Fellowship in the upper room to the Hour of Loneliness in the Garden.

The service will begin at 7:30 p.m. Thursday evening, March 26.

Methodists Set Three Easter Morn Services

The Sierra Madre Methodist Church will have three Easter morning services, at 8 a.m., 9:30 and 11 a.m., March 29. Dr. Chilton C. McPheeters subject will be: "Was God Present In All Of This?"

Maundy Thursday Communion will be observed on March 26, at 7:30 p.m. Philip Carrol, Sally Daisey, Ed Hook, Peter Jensen, Cheryl Johnson, Sam Kirk, Jan Lindman, Gary Newton, Georgianna Rogers, Eileen Rogers, Barbara Shanks, Roger Shanks, Linda Siggins, Marilee Ann Sleetter, Jeanine Stine, Connie Van Keuren, and Barbara Ward from the Youth Preparatory Church group will be received during the services into the church membership.

A full choir will participate, and a reception will follow in the Parish House.

Bethany Plans Special Services

Special services are planned for Easter Sunday at Bethany Church.

There will be duplicate services at 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. with the regular Sunday School scheduled for a short session at 10 a.m. There is a goal of 666 for the Sunday School for this Easter Sunday.

The Chancel Choir will bring special music in the morning services along with the Carolers Choir, composed of primary aged children. In the evening at 7 a.m. there will be a special Easter Musicale presented by the five choirs of Bethany Church. There will also be featured a brass quartet to play with the choirs in some traditional Easter music.

Dr. Robert Schaper will speak at the morning services on, "The Great Spring Morning."

Dr. Schaper will leave a special retreat at Forest Home on Monday. Some 20 pastors and Christian leaders have been invited by the Forest Home board of directors to participate in an executive training institute, conducted by Jack Stanfill, of the Supervision Analysis Institute of America. Dr. Schaper will return on Wednesday afternoon.

'Hyphenated Judaism' Is Beth Israel Topic

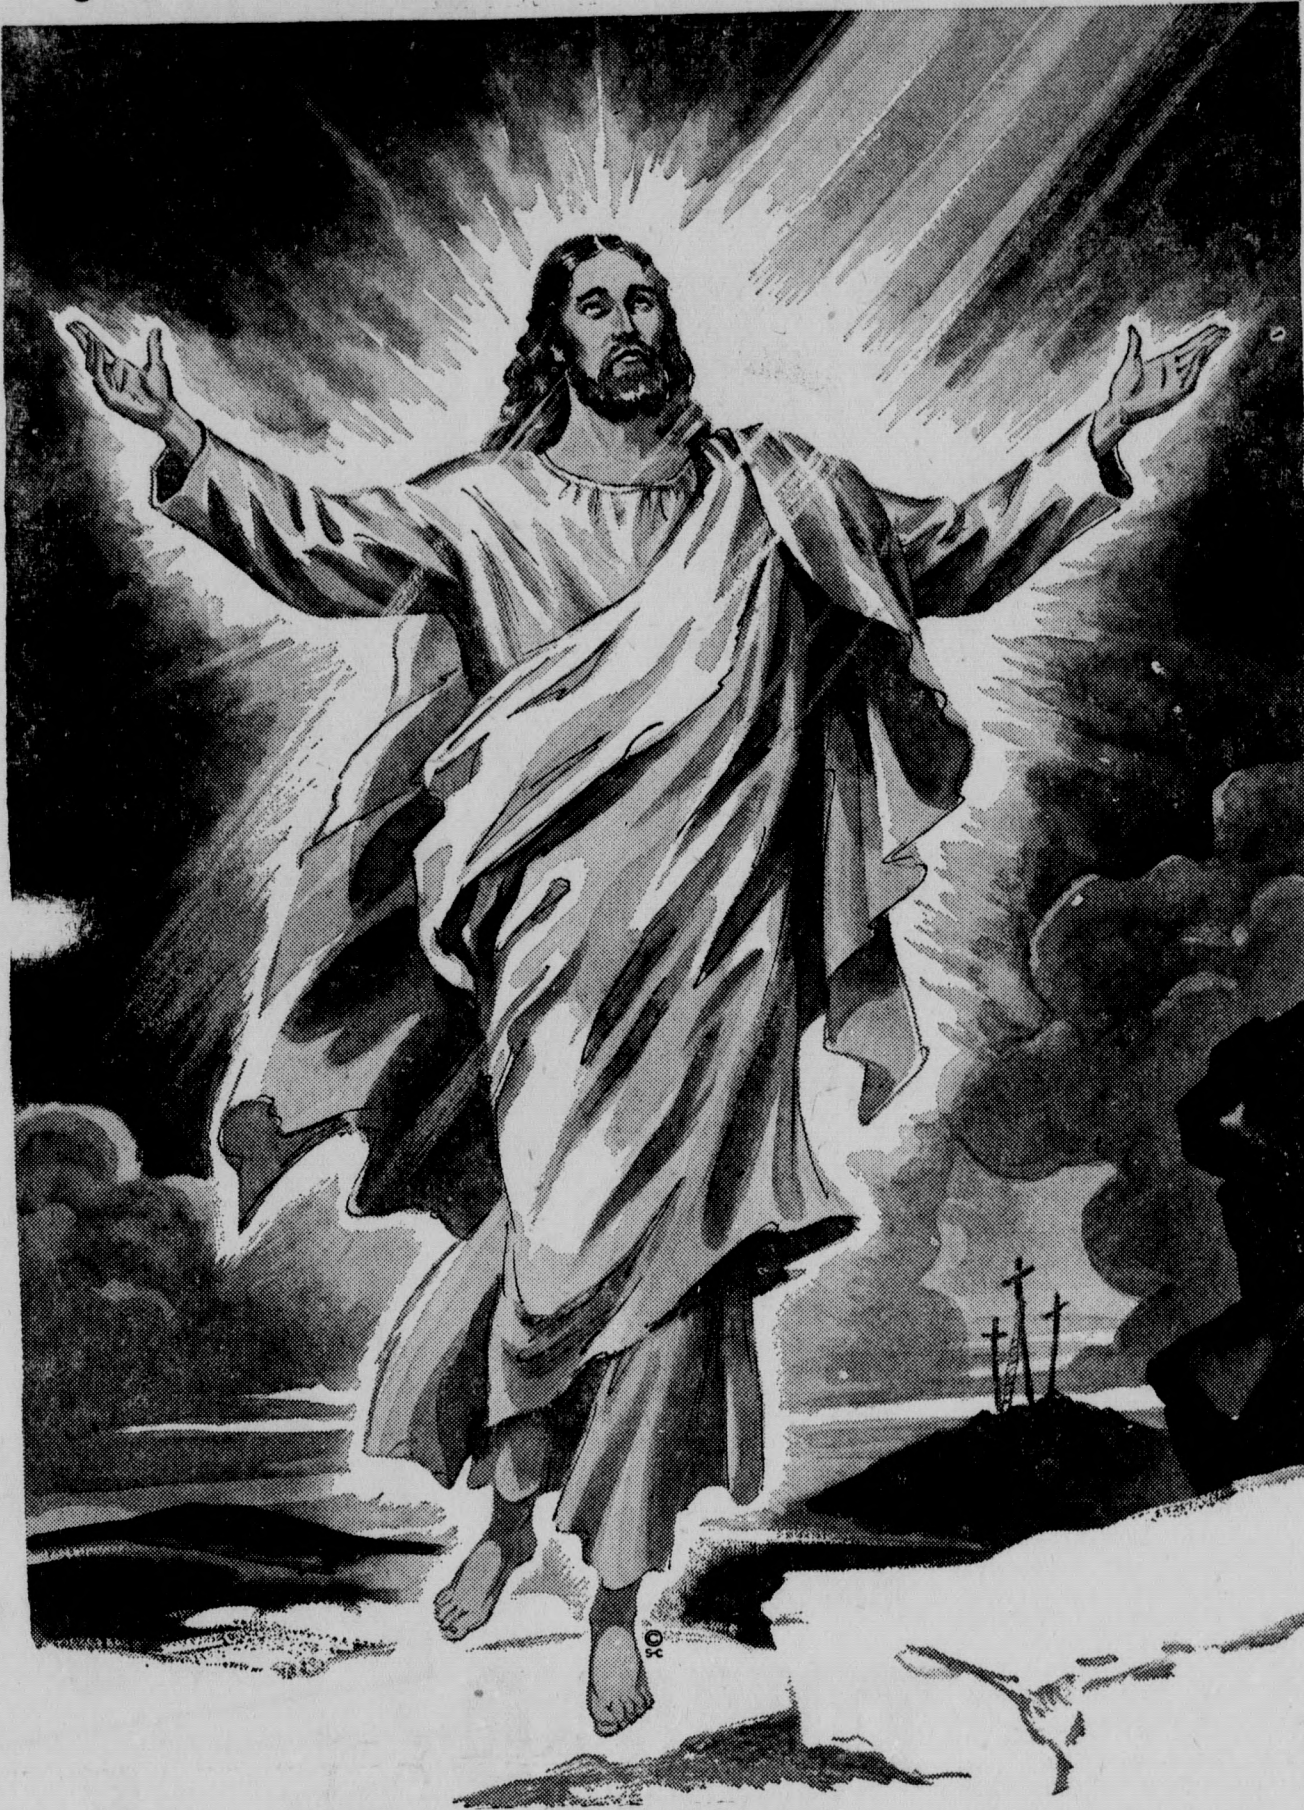

At the Foothill Jewish Community Center of Temple Beth Israel, Rabbi Charles W. Steckel spiritual leader, will conduct services on Friday evening, March 27 at 8:30 p.m. Cantor Salo Blumenthal, will assist.

Rabbi Steckel will speak on "Hyphenated Judaism." At the organ will be Miss Jerri Schuck. The Junior Choir will be heard under the direction of Oreg Bertram.

Hosts for the Oneg Shabbath following the services will be Mr. and Mrs. Irving Atlas and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kustner of Monrovia.

Rabbi Steckel will conduct Sabbath morning services at 9 a.m.

Go to the CHURCH of your choice this EASTER SUNDAY

He Is Not Here! He Is Risen!

As joyful worshippers throng to church this Easter Sunday to hear the exultant story of Jesus' triumph over sin and death, they will be reminded, once again, that Christ is not here—not in the gay dresses, or the lovely flowers, or the triumphant anthems, or in the words of the minister. He is not here, because He is risen, risen to the heights of victory, to which He calls us to follow.

This is the glorious fact about Easter. We go to church to give thanks to God for the victory which is ours in the risen Christ. And that victory is truly ours, not just for the brief moments we spend in church, or for Easter day, or even for the rest of our lives, but for all of Eternity.

So, when you go to church this Easter Sunday, go, not only expecting to find Christ there, but to take Him with you.

With the hope that it will, in some measure, foster and help sustain that which is good in family and community life, this feature is sponsored by the business firms and organizations whose names appear in this space.

Garden Notes . . .

Constant Work Can Produce Beautiful Lawn

One long-time gardener we know has put it this way: "The man who claims no lawn problems is either lucky or lying." His comment is overly harsh since it makes no allowance for skill, but it points up a common problem of gardening in California.

There's still nothing like a beautiful lawn, and most gardeners wouldn't even consider a substitute. So let's look at what can be done to keep them happy with the least effort possible.

THE CALIFORNIA Association of Nurserymen suggests that a little effort frequently applied will go a long way. Certainly it's better than the infrequent big effort which usually comes too late. One exception to this is your watering schedule. It's better to train a lawn to take deep watering infrequently so that root growth gets down where a vacation drought will be less apt to affect them and cause trouble on top. Your lawn feeding program should start immediately—if not sooner. A late winter or early spring feeding gets the lawn off on the right foot. Light follow-up applications of a complete fertilizer can be made at one month or six-week intervals.

Another early spring job is to apply weed killer and thereby reduce competition for the room and board your grass needs. Following—along about May—a treatment with crabgrass control can reduce the frequency of that unpleasant invader later. Summer follow-ups will probably be necessary for complete crabgrass control.

THE HEIGHT you mow should be regulated by how fast the lawn is growing. If you have your mower set at 1 or 1½ inches during winter make sure it's 1½ to 2 inches as weather warms up. You can ruin a lawn's appearance (and future) by cutting it too short in hot weather.

Salt 'n Spray...

Here's Big Johnson at the Bat—He Struck Out

By Al Miyadi

THE HARDER THEY FALL—And they don't come any bigger than Johnson Motors.

In the outdoor motor industry, Johnson is a magic name, the richest and most powerful.

But they took a dunking last week.

It took place a Paradise Cove before nearly half-a-hundred of the most important newsmen in the outdoor field. All the local mets covered.

And this is the story they failed to mention.

At 10:30 a.m. last Tuesday, Paradise Cove owner Joe Morris, all-day boat, Gentleman, scrubbed and freshly painted, pulled alongside the Santa Monica Pier to pick up the newsmen.

It was a beautiful day. The winds were away, the fog was smog-gone, and the water was flatter than my bankroll.

And for the hour-and-a-half swing up the bay to the Cove, the free-loading newsmen swigged booze, exchanged jokes, and had themselves a ball.

All in all, it looked like another easy conquest for the Organization Men.

BACK AT THE COVE—Everyting was whistling smoothly. Nancy Rideout, national fem water ski champ, went faultlessly through her paces. Caterers (at $5 per crack) from a world famous restaurant were on the beach.

Inside the Cove clubhouse, expert movie men made their final check on the special color film, a movie which showed a 22-foot boat powered by two Johnson outboard motors win their two-lives gamble against the howling Atlantic, Europe to America.

At precisely high noon, the Gentleman, now unscrubbed, pulled in alongside the Paradise Cove Pier.

As the newsmen howled onto the beach, now hard on the scent of the caterer, the men in unison synchronized their watches.

It was now time for the Organization to go to work.

MICE, MEN AND JOHNSON—Nancy, the champ, flew across the water in her fashion... until the motor conked out.

Game to the core, and as good as a Johnson paycheck, she gave it another whirl. Around the Cove they flew.

What a sight! The newsmen collectively held their breath.

Kerplunk went the motor. Right into the Pacific.

The newsmen exhaled.

The cameraman for a local TV show, armed with a $1,000 click set, valiantly tried to save something, anything, commenced a neat balancing act straddling two boats, lost.

Suddenly there was only quiet except for the gulls above, wheeling in delight, and the newsmen, whose snickers rippled up and down the beach.

Quickly, the Men acted: They canceled the color movie.

But it was too late. Dis had snuck into the Organization.

ON THE BEACH—Against

Janie Leffingwell's mother, Mrs. Dorothy Hamlin, is visiting, too. She left her home in the Canal Zone last June for a holiday in Europe and while seeing the World's Fair last September, was struck by a taxicab. Even though she says the people were wonderful to her, I can imagine how happy she was to see the States once again and be with part of her family.

Virus Is Suspected as Cause of Shingles

(Presented as a public service by the Foothill District of the Los Angeles County Medical Association)

Even a person who has experienced a severe attack of shingles finds it difficult to describe. Certainly the disease, medically known as herpes zoster, produces excruciating pain and renders the victim to a state of debility physically and emotionally.

The exact cause of shingles is not known, but a virus is the culprit suspected. The great pain associated with the affliction is easily understandable when one realizes that the disease attacks the nerve endings in the body. Since these nerve endings act as little sub-stations off the main nervous system to carry sensations from one part of the body to another anything that attacks their delicate mechanism produces intense pain.

THE DISTINCT manifestation of shingles is the eruption of small blisters on the skin in the site involved. Even before these are seen, the sensitivity of the skin to the slightest touch is felt. And when one little cluster of blisters disappears, another may crop out, either at the same site or nearby. There is great tenderness, and this may persist long after the acute pain is controlled through medication.

In severe attacks of shingles, the pain recurs and recurs, but it is more fleeting in nature rather than persistent as in the initial onset of the disease.

Intense itching of the skin is another unpleasant aspect of herpes zoster. Strangely enough, this is not necessarily confined to the area where the pain and skin eruption occurs. It may be felt in other areas of the body. This, together with the tingling sensation is almost unbearable.

WHAT PARTS of the body are affected? Commonly the spine and chest, and more commonly the neck, the eyes and the groin. And anyone who has had it on just one side of the back knows the acute suffering.

What are the factors in shingles? Little is known about the condition, except that it is definitely related to fatigue brought on by overwork, prolonged illness, malnutrition, severe injury to the body, toxic infections and anxiety.

The length of time involved in an attack of shingles varies. The attacks range from a mild variety to those severe in character. The convalescent period may cover a few weeks or extend over a period of months. There may be residual effects, such as neuritis or lack of physical endurance.

IN RECOVERING from an attack of shingles, the patient should avoid nervous tension and agitation, have suitable rest from work, adequate nutrition and sleep. In fact, sedatives are usually prescribed by the physician to insure relaxation and sleep.

Even in these modern days when shingles is quite common, the condition is still considered an "old fashioned" disease. Just to mention it, frequently evokes a smile

New Rate Bid Is Rejected

The State Public Utilities Commission has turned down a petition of the California Water and Telephone Co. for a rehearing on its request to raise telephone rates by $1-970,000 a year. In a decision last Jan. 20 the Commission cut the amount to $750,000.

The company contended that the increase authorized by the Commission was not enough to meet higher operating costs and declining earnings.

In denying the petition, the Commission said only that the company had not shown "good cause" for granting a rehearing.

Azaleas Bloom at Descanso

Late blooming Camellias and early Azaleas now combine to make an unusual blending of floral colors at Los Angeles County's Descanso Gardens in La Canada, according to Descanso Superintendent John Threlkeld.

Among the Camellias blooming are the rare Reticulatas, which obtain their botanical distinction from their leaf veins are reticulated. Up to 1948, when newer varieties of Reticulata were imported from China by Descanso Gardens, the only known locally growing Reticulata was the Captain Rawes.

The Captain Rawes is still in bloom at Descanso. It is a carmine rose pink, very large semi-double, with irregular petals.

Among the new imports from China is the Cornelian, a turkey red, to deep rose pink, marbled white.

Frogs, Bears Wildflowers, Oranges to Highlight April

Frogs and bears, oranges and desert wildflowers provide a colorful month of events in Southern California during April, according to the calendar issued by the All-Year Club yesterday.

The All-Year Club carries on the Southland's cooperative campaign to attract tourists who spend over half a billion dollars a year here. The area's events help make it a more intriguing place to visit.

For the 44th year the National Orange Show will be held April 23-May 3 at San Bernardino. About a trainload of oranges go into juice at the world's longest bar and into exhibits along the "Polynesian Paradise" theme grouped around a volcano spouting orange lava. A marina 1,000 feet bigger than a football field will permit water skiing and aquatic exhibits.

FROGS WILL be jumping at Del Mar April 12 in the warm-up for the jubilee at Angels Camp. A jump is three consecutive hops and one winner did 7 feet 10 inches (no springs installed).

Idyllwild holds a Bear Festival April 11-12 with bear meat barbecue, Bear Queen, trained bear acts. There will be a chainsaw derby, Pauline Bunyan and Woodman contest. New silver dollars will be given in change.

The world famous Ramona Outdoor Play will be given weekends of April 18-19, 25-26 and May 2-3 in the acoustically perfect natural amphitheater near Hemet and San Jacinto. Raquel Tejada, 18-year-old beauty contest winner of La Jolla, plays the Ramona role.

With movie and television stars participating, Palm Springs holds its 23rd Desert Circus April 1-5. Bob Marx, son of Comedian Gummo, is chairman. There will be a Bavarian beer festival, desert ride, chuckwagon breakfast and parade. The state of Colorado is being honored.

CALEXICO AND Mexicali in the great Imperial Valley cotton country hold their Cotton Carnival April 23-26. There will be a queen on each side of the border—Queen of Cotton and Mex-cali Rose, a cotton ball and fashion show, International Cotton Parade going through the International gate.

As the blooming season on the desert arrives, China Lake, near the great Navy test center, is holding a Desert Wildflower Show April 25-26. Not only hundreds of kinds of flowers, but horned toads, lizards and other desert life, as well as gems and a 350-pound geode will be exhibited.

Hi Vista in Antelope Valley holds its 27th annual Wildflower Festival April 11-12 showing flowers gathered in from the desert of three counties. On Sunday there will be the traditional ham dinner and turtle race.

WITH BLOOMING of the lilacs, Palmdale holds a lilac show tentatively set for April 11-12. There will be about 200 exhibits of lilac bouquets and arrangements.

Morongo Valley combines its Desert Wildflower Show April 18-19 with an exhibit of desert wood, cacti and butterflies.

Needles beside the Colorado River arranges its flower show April 4 around the theme "Desert Wonderland."

Santa Barbara, the orchid-growing center, holds the 14th annual International Orchid Show at the National Guard armory April 16-19, with orchids brought from abroad.

April winds up top blooming of the Camellia, "The Southern California Flower," at Descanso Gardens at La Canada, and 10,000 Azaleas and 200 varieties of Iris take over.

Garden Grove holds a Strawberry Festival April 2-4 with a "roundup of redheads" and play-offs of the National Wheelchair Basketball Tournament.

The air over the palms of 29 Palms will be filled with batons as twirlers come from the area around for an all-day contest April 11.

Lakewood for the 14th year climaxes its Pan American Week with a 2½-hour parade April 19 honoring Haiti.

LOVELY GIRLS arrive by yacht at Belmont Shore for the contest April 17-24 to pick Miss Welcome to Long Beach, the official hostess for the Miss Universe Beauty Contest. They must be beautiful in both swim suits and gowns and be able to speak extemporaneously. Motor scooters gain stature of sports cars April 5 in their first annual Rallye, a navigational run through the Hollywood hills, followed by a Concours d'Elegance on the Sunset Strip.

Bankers Support Brown's Budget and Tax Program

Gov. Edmund G. Brown had new support for his budget and tax program this week from the California Bankers Association and the Bank of America.

Gov. Brown said he was advised by Director of Finance Bert W. Levitt that CBA will not oppose increases in bank and corporation taxes and personal income taxes if the Legislature approves other new taxes proposed by the Administration.

LEVITT ALSO told the governor that the Bank of America, which is not a member of CBA, was "in full accord" with the associations' position.

CBA's position was drafted by its Commission on Legislation and Taxation. The commission includes many top bank executives in the state.

"I am glad to see a major segment of the business community raise a responsible voice in favor of putting the state back on a pay-as-you-go basis," Gov. Brown declared.

Levitt said the banking industry's "forthright position should put at rest, once and for all, any claims that California businessmen do not favor a balanced budget or are opposed to the sound fiscal policies embodied in the governor's fiscal program."

"I HAVE KNOWN from the start that informed and responsible spokesmen of the business community would support our efforts to put the state back on a sound, fiscal footing without further delay," Brown said.

He added that the bankers' firm stand is further evidence of an understanding by business that the tax program is "necessary and just." Brown said he has had "countless assurances of support" in the form of phone calls, letters and conversations with leaders in every sector of the California economy.

He noted that such groups as the California Teachers Association, the California Supervisors Association and the California State Employees Association have given him his fiscal program official support.

GOV. BROWN signed into law the first bill of his "get tough" traffic safety program last week.

The measure, authored by Assemblyman Walter Dahl, Piedmont Republican, fixes a firm 65-mile-an-hour speed limit on California highways. It becomes effective Jan. 1, 1960.

GOV. BROWN was in Washington, D.C., this week to confer with California senators and congressmen on Federal participation in water development.

Before leaving Sacramento, the governor was informed that California water interests and the state's congress-sional delegation had reached agreement on the terms of Federal-state cooperation in construction of the San Luis Reservoir.

The reservoir is a key feature of the state's water program. It will store more than two million acre feet of water as part of the aqueduct system to deliver water to Southern California.

GOV. BROWN's first labor bill also cleared its first hurdle last week.

The Assembly Industrial

Relations Committee voted 5 to 1 to send the bill to the full Assembly with a "do pass" recommendation.

The bill provides machinery to permit employees by a secret ballot election to accept or reject a union as their bargaining agent.

It also establishes procedure for the settlement of jurisdictional strikes involving unions and prohibits striking, picketing, boycotting and work stoppages in jurisdictional disputes.

On March 10, the California Public Utilities Commission handed down a 3-to-2 decision denying, for the most part, our applications to discontinue certain little-used California passenger trains. This decision has caused some misunderstanding of our feelings about passenger train service. THE TRUTH IS...

WE WANT TO RUN PASSENGER TRAINS

We're in the business of running trains—both passenger and freight—and we expect to be running them for a long time to come. We want to make it very clear just how we feel about our passenger service.

- 1 We want to run passenger trains that you need and use. We welcome passenger business and we hope more people will ride our trains.
- 2 We want our passenger trains to be good trains. We think our passenger service is as good as any in the country...and we intend to keep it that way.
- 3 We feel, however, that it is only sensible to discontinue those trains which so few people use that the trains obviously are no longer needed.

ARE WE ACTING IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST? Yes! Say these Commissioners...

Last week, C. Lyn Fox, President of the California Public Utilities Commission, and Commissioner Matthew J. Dooley, who presided and heard all evidence at the hearings, took sharp issue with many opinions expressed in the March 10 decision of the other three Commissioners.

In their dissenting statement Commissioners Fox and Dooley said that Southern Pacific "... is to be commended rather than condemned for initiating economies designed to reduce its out-of-pocket loss and thus enable it to continue on a reasonable basis a public passenger service which will meet the public need and convenience as demonstrated by present usage."

They further said, "... Southern Pacific ... has met fully the burden of proof necessary to sustain its application..."

"In no instance does the daily average number of through revenue passengers carried between major termini by any one of these six trains equal one bus load. To require applicant to continue to provide railway passenger service for a single bus load of passengers is uneconomical in the extreme."

The dissenting Commissioners pointed out that, although they were keenly aware that a utility incurs an obligation to meet demands of public convenience and necessity, as an economic factor any deficit suffered due to passenger train losses must be subsidized by agricultural, industrial and governmental shippers. They said that in the present case the majority decision "ignores the economics of the situation in general and of California shippers ... in particular."

The two Commissioners further stated that they had "... been unable to find in the record any evidence indicating, in the slightest degree, any lack of integrity in applicant's presentation. In this connection it is significant that the presiding Commissioner ... found no lack of integrity in their development and presentation."

And they concluded, "There comes a time when those charged with the responsibility of regulating public utilities should face up to the facts of change and act with objectivity and reason. That time has arrived in the State of California."
